

American-Canadian Genealogical Society of New Hampshire

Founded September 1973

October 3, 1981

ABSENT were: Robert Gaudet and Lucille Lagasse

The society's annual meeting began at 9:45 AM, at St. Anselm's College in Manchester, NH. The recording secretary, Marie Mailhot, read the minutes to the previous conference which were accepted. The treasurer, Mark Gauthier, presented the treasurer's report and it was discussed and accepted. A separate checking account will be opened for the Acadien Committee and a separate one for the Library Board. Richard Fortin read a letter from our auditor, James Lahar.

Pierre Boulanger who represents the ^{Canadian} Quebec government in Boston spoke thanking us for our good relationship with them, and offered us his support.

The Sacred-Heart rectory in Auburn Maine will be the new location of the Lewiston Chapter. The following officers for the coming year are: President, Norman Rioux; Vice-President, Richard Vallieres; Treasurer, Sylvia Driscoll; Recording Secretary, Suzanne Pelletier; Corresponding Secretary, Raymond Landry; Directors are: Leo Fortin and Maurice Roux; Librarian Paulette Dufour.

Representing the Acadien Association, Andy Thibeault reported that 1½ years ago they were formed. They now have 200 members. They publish a news letter. Future goals include reaching acadiens to join by getting air time on television.

Speaking for the ^{French-Canadian} American Genealogical Society of Conn., Henry Carrier announced that their library would open in six weeks. They are affiliated with ACGS. English will be their primary language. Flyers are being distributed to surrounding schools to attract Franco-American students to join.

October 3, 1951

present were: Robert Gaudet and Lucille Lassalle

The society's annual meeting began at 8:15 AM at St. Anselm's College in Manchester, N.H. The recording secretary, Marie Lalonde, read the minutes to the previous conference which were accepted. The treasurer, Mark Gaudet, presented the treasurer's report and it was discussed and accepted. A separate checking account will be opened for the Acadien Committee and a separate one for the library board. Richard Fortin reads letter from our auditor, James Laper.

Pierre Boulanger who represents the Quebec Government in Boston spoke thanking us for our good relationship with them, and offered us his support.

The Sacred-Heart rectory in Auburn Maine will be the new location of the Lewiston Chapter. The following officers for the coming year are: President,

Norman Dixon; Vice-President, Richard Vallieres; Treasurer, Sylvia Dussault; Recording Secretary, Suzanne Pelletier; Corresponding Secretary, Raymond Landry;

Directors are: Leo Fortin and Maurice Houe; Librarian, Lucette Dufour. Representing the Acadien Association, Andy Thibault reported that 12 years ago they were formed. They now have 200 members. They publish a news letter.

Future goals include reaching acadians to join by getting air time on television.

Speaking for the American Genealogical Society of Conn., Henry Carter announced that their library would open in six weeks. They are affiliated with ACG. English will be their primary language. Flyers are being distributed to surrounding schools to attract franco-American students to join.

Another Tanguay Raffle will be held. The first one was a great success. The purpose for the raffle is to raise funds for additional book purchases. The winner of the first raffle was James H. Mero # 218 of Hampton, Virginia.

A motion was made and accepted to organize a loose federation of 6 or 7 societies to work together and communicate together and negotiate in order to reach goals of research in Canada.

Our society now has a new home. We are located at 52 Concord St., in the Association Canade Americaine building's lower level.

Elections were conducted by Rose Freedman and the newly elected officers for the coming year are: President, Richard Fortin # 254; Vice-President, Jean Pellerin; Treasurer, Mark Gauthier # 346; Recording Secretary, Marie Mailhot # 323 and Corresponding Secretary, Denise Pelletier # 615.

Board Members elected for two year terms which expire in 1983 are: Theodore Brassard # 497, Rev. Fernand Croteau # 442, Robert Decoteau # 263, and Raymond Gagnon # 433. David Fournier was elected to a one year term to expire in 1982.

~~After the elections it was announced that Montmagny, France had a 300 year celebration.~~

The French correspondence will be sorted, selected and updated by Barbara Williamson and Mr. Morin. Thank you for taking on that task.

A warm and sincere thank you is due to Father Croteau for the use of his rectory as our library's home. A motion was made and accepted to send an official letter of thanks.

The meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Another raffle will be held. The first one was a great success. The purpose for the raffle is to raise funds for additional book purchases. The winner of the first raffle was James H. More # 218 of Hampton, Virginia. A motion was made and accepted to organize a loose federation of 6 or 7 societies to work together and communicate together and negotiate in order to reach goals of research in Canada.

Our society now has a new home. We are located at 25 Concord St., in the Association Canada American building's lower level.

Elections were conducted by Rose Freedman and the newly elected officers for the coming year are: President, Richard Fortin # 251; Vice-President, Jean Pelletier; Treasurer, Mark Gauthier # 316; Recording Secretary, Marie Hailhot # 323 and Corresponding Secretary, Denise Pelletier # 612.

Board Members elected for two year terms which expire in 1983 are: Theodore Brassard # 197, Rev. Fernand Grotan # 112, Robert Decoteau # 263, and Raymond Gagnon # 133. David Fournier was elected to a one year term to expire in 1982.

~~After the elections it was announced that Monday, France had a 300 year celebration.~~

The French correspondence will be sorted, selected and updated by Barbara Williamson and Mr. Fortin. Thank you for taking on that task.

A warm and sincere thank you is due to Father Grotan for the use of his rectory as our library's home. A motion was made and accepted to send an official letter of thanks.

The meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,