ACGS BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING
 11 January 2000
 Meeting called to order at 6:30 by g. Lalonde

Present: R. Neveux, G. Lalonde, C. Donais, D. Chaput, R. Fournier, S. Harris, M. Jussaume, L. Swenson, R. Fournier, D. Doiron
 Also Present: R. Marchand, Bernie Cowette.
 Excused: M. Normand, P. Lambert.
 Absent: D. Nault-Lauziere, R. Maurier.

TOPIC	DISCUSSION	ACTION
	Bernie Cowette was introduced to show us how to scan information onto CD-ROMs. Especially interested in having the Obituaries scanned onto CDs. Discussion and demonstration of how this would be done. Possibility of volunteers being needed to add lines into pages in order to line up the columns. It would be advantageous to have all names in the obits indexed. We already have an index on disk of the deceased. The software is $400 and Bernie would charge $.5 per page if the lines for columns were already done. With an estimate of 100,000 that would be about $5000. Discussion on the possibility of having this done will be done at another meeting.
1. Secretary's Minutes	1. January minutes reviewed.	1. Motion to accept minutes by C. Donais. Second, M. Jussaume. Motion carried.
2. Treasurer's Report	2. Report submitted. #6303, AC Genealogist bill was $6791, put the society in the red by $4445. Grounds Maintenance is high because of plowing. Fire Alarm Fee is an annual fee paid to check the alarm. There have been 2 Life Memberships since the announcement of the raise in dues. G. Lalonde will take money each year for operating fees from the Life Membership. Discussion of	2. Motion by C. Donais that Life Membership fees be segregated and put into a separate account until it is decided what will be done with them and escrow that money until there is a trust fund type account established. Second, G. Lalonde. Motion carried. Report filed for audit.

The Library Board met on 28 February 2001. Present: Ann Carle, Donald Chaput, Mary-Jean Chaput. Guest Roland Marchand.

1. We reviewed books for addition to the Main Collection. We will be adding nine books.
2. Ann received a Basic Packet from the Bridgeport Bindery. She will call them for pricing verification.
3. Schedule for March shows that we need people to volunteer at the desk at the following days and times:
Fri. 3/9 9-12, 12-3

Sat. 3/10 12:30-4

Fri. 3/21 9-12, 12-3

Fri. 3/30 9-12

Sat. 3/31 9-12:30

If you can cover any of these time slots, please let me know. Also, we have people who have signed up to do every Wed. from 6-9. If you would like to do Fri. from 6-9, that is fine as well.

4. Other items to come before the meeting:

The Cardex system for checking in periodicals has arrived. Ann will set that up.

We have been asked to provide the Manchester Historical Society with some of our tri-fold bulletins and will do so.

Roland expressed concerns over the space shortage for the obits. A solution to this problem, whether it be long-term or short-term, requires moving some other part of a collection or collections. Many possible solutions were discussed and will be considered for implementation.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary-Jean Chaput, Library Director

To the Officers, Board members, Chairpersons & Committee

My apologies for having the last meeting pass right by me & not reporting

On the NY front

In January David Bonitatibus spoke at the Saratoga Library to what was anticipated about 25 individuals when actually about 150 people showed up.

He was equipped with center folds from ACGS; about 12 copies of our quarterly; full knowledge of his subject and strong belief in the Society he was representing

People who had never heard of ACGS now know of our existence, our resources, our aims and some of our projects.

From that meeting he has recruited numerous volunteers to help publication in data entry of all those NY parishes that await our attention. New members were signed up & some repertoires sales requested.

Super job David

Scheduled to be published shortly would have been the baptisms of Visitation of BVM of Schuylerville. Unfortunately, a small snag will delay that going to press which is a hazards of the trade, lost file that needs to be recopied. That would have completed that parish as Marriages and Burials have been published

I believe the up and coming schedule is to retract and proof read the baptisms and burials of Sacred Heart Schenectady to complete that parish. Marriages have been published

For those of you who question why we do NY, may I suggest that you look closely at what has been published. You will surprising find many Franco names that someone has perhaps long and hard looked for

On the NH front:

Marriages of St Raphael Manchester have been published

Soon to be completed are the baptisms followed by the burials. That will complete that local parish that many have longed for in years

Kathy Pasko, all by herself, has completed ALL the marriages births and deaths of St Francois Xavier Nashua NH. In the next few weeks I shall break up the registers and make the files ready for data entry

The most EXITING is that she has been given permission to do ALL of St Louis de Gonzague also in Nashua. Rev Cote had originally said she could only do part but may have had a change of heart when she came in with repertoires of our newest publications (St Raphael) that went to Dec 2000 and St John the Baptist Suncook that went to the end of 1999.

From her last report she anticipated completion of copying all the baptism, the burials and still had to tackle ALL the marriages. She hopes to be done in the next few weeks.

We need proof readers that are qualified and can do the job. 1 out of 3 survive and produce well

Unfortunately life deal it blows and we loose some. If this assembly can take a moment and bow their heads in remembrance of Gene Thibodeau who for years gave, volunteered, silently his time, skills to this Society

Respectfully submitted
